TWENTY-SEVENTH YEAR. NO. 45.

CEDARVILLE, OHIO, FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 25, 1904.

PRICE $1.00 A YEAR.

The Gift Store, McCOLLUM'S

Will easily solve the problem of what to give Her or Him.

No trouble to find something for Father, Mother, Sister or brother or anyone you wish to remember at Christmas.

We need not mention the many things to be found here. It is well known that we at all times have a line of such things as is found in first class jewelry stores outside of large cities.

You can't please the boy better than by giving him a watch. We have them from $1.00 up.

Girls too will be pleased with watches. (We have already put away some that will make glad the hearts of some of the fair girls of the neighborhood.) Make an early call and select what you want before the rush of the last days. Come whether you wish to buy or not. You're always welcome and we'll treat you as well as we know.

McCOLLUM,
The Jeweler.

TWO ELECTRIC ROADS.

While electric roads come and go there is never one road promoted, but that another turns up in a few days.
The Harry Frey road is again being surveyed some changes being made since the first survey.

It is stated that the road will not come down through town but will come in on the west side crossing the paper mill property to the Galbreath property on Xenia avenue, this being the station. The road will then cross east of the school house and go south to the Wilmington pike.

Another road that has come into prominence is the Springfield and South Charleston road that is in the process of construction and will be completed by the first of the year. As this road is only a few miles north of Clifton it is proposed that a line be built south along the Springfield pike taking in Cedarville, Jamestown and out to Jeffersonville where it will join the main line. As this company has done little talk and considerable work the report is taken with considerable credence.

GOING SOUTH.

Mr. and Mrs. Milton Keyes, who operate the City Hotel, Monday, for the new management, leave the 6th of December for Orange, Fla., where
Mr. Keyes possesses an orange grove.
Mr. S. Keyes and family will, in all probabilities, leave later to spend the winter there, as Mr. Keyes has been suffering from telegrapher's paralysis for some time. For forty years the Mr. and Mrs. Keyes have been residents of Cedarville, and their friends, who are without number, rejoice to see them go.

ANTIOCH AT HOME.

The last game of the season's series of foot ball was scheduled at Antioch with the Antioch College team. This team was defeated earlier in the season by Cedarville, on the local grounds, by a score of 16 to 11, consequently a good game was anticipated.

As soon as the Cedarville team entered the opponent's field, they were informed that they were away from home and must take what was given them. It was soon seen that Antioch intended winning, no matter to what means they were compelled to resort.
After much wrangling, seventeen minutes of the first half were played when Antioch effected a touchdown by means of a forward pass. This Cedarville refused to permit to be counted, and were immediately told to either admit the score or leave the field. The umpire had decided the play unfair. After half an hour's argument, the Antioch team left the field, Cedarville remaining, hoping to finish the game, but further continuance was seen impossible, so the team retreated home.

In all the history of athletics at Oederville college, there has not been one contest with Antioch not attended by wrangling and objection; Cedarville on some occasions leaving amid a shower of bricks and other heavy material.

MAY SUCCEED CHOATE.

It is said that Whitelaw Reid, editor of the New York Tribune, is booked to succeed Joseph H. Choate as ambassador to England after March 4 next. Mr. Reid is an experienced dip-lomast. He has been ambassador to France and was special envoy to King Edward's coronation.

REV. HUTCHISON SPEAKS.

The first steps for the organization of a local branch of the Ohio Anti-Saloon League was taken when Rev.
R. A. Hutchison of Altoona, Pa., delivered an address before a large audience in the U. P. church last Sabbath evening. The meeting was attended by the members of the different congregations, the pastors taking some part in the services preceding the address.

Rev. Hutchison has had large experiences in the local option work in his county, much of the success being attributed to his untiring efforts to crush out the saloon. The speaker has been active in the work of prosecuting violators and his remarks in this connection along with the accounts of his experiences gave his auditors both sides of the question.

It has been suggested that the Committee of One Hundred be reorganized under the direction of the State League so that the body can be in closer touch with "the powers that be."

The work of the league was fully explained by Rev. Hutchison and in his remarks he paid the local committee a handsome compliment for the work that they had done in the prosecution of violators.

The meeting through out was very instructive.

FIELDS-SANDERS.

Wednesday evening at 6:30 o'clock, a very pretty wedding was solemnized at the home of Mr. Samuel Sanders, when his daughter, Miss Florence, was united in marriage to Mr. Walter Fields. The bride was beautifully gowned in white silk, while her maid of honor, Miss Lillian Fields, sister of the groom, wore a pink creation. The groom and his attendant were attired in keeping with the usual custom.
The ceremony was impressively performed by Rev. H. C. Middleton, pastor of the contracting parties. Miss Minnie Rattenour presided at the piano. Refreshments were served to about fifty guests, all relatives of the bride and groom.

Mr. and Mrs. Sanders are both very popular young people and enjoy a large circle of friends, as evidenced by the numerous presents received.
Who heartily congratulate them. For the present they will make their home with the bride's parents, south of Celarville.

THE MUSICAL CLUB.

The first number on the lecture course was a decided success and if succeeding numbers are up to the standard set by the one last Friday night the entire course will be better than has been given the patrons of this form of amusement for several years. The Hawthorne Musical Club proved to be good entertainers. They introduced a number of new musical pieces, such as a "Trip to the County Fair" and a "Trip to New York City."
The other program numbers were equally as good.

Postmaster Tarbox entertained the Tarbox family at the annual gathering of that family on Thanksgiving.

A TRIBUTE.

Miss Mary Ewing, Secretary to Postmaster T. M. Baker, has received the following beautiful and touching tribute on the death of her mother, Mrs. S. L. Ewing, written by Mrs. E. Miller Slaughter: Oh, call them back, the birds whose strains celestial Awake their music outside heavens blue door,
Frail lutes that serenade these scenes terrestrial.
Oh, call them back; oh, call them back
once more.
Oh, call them back, the roses in their splendor,
That lit with rose and flame the spring's green floor;
Bid the chill frost their captive soul surrender;
Oh, call them back; oh, call them back
once more.
Oh, call them back, the songs fond life
would waken,
While love sat listening in the days of yore.
They fell like rose leaves from loose boughs down shaken.
Oh, call them back; oh, call them back
once more.
Call back the dreams fond fancy loved to cherish.
Call them like exiles to their native
shore.
They were too blest, too radiant to perish.
Oh, call them back; oh, call them back
once more.
Call back the friends who made the heart
grow fonder,
Who walked with us and shared our daily store.
Why should they linger voiceless ever yonder?
Oh, call them back; oh, call them back
once more.
Call back the love whose passing left us lonely.
Whose smile was something angels might adore.
But it is live were but to suffer only.
Oh, who would wake to call her back
once more.
—Louisville Post.

SHEEP CLAIMS.

The following facts concerning sheep claims will be interesting to those who have sustained damages from the depredations of dogs.

Owners can not get damages for sheep killed or injured by dogs if the dog is owned or harbored by himself or a tenant on his land.

When the owner of the dog is known and is able to pay damages none can be collected from the count.

When sheep are killed or injured and the owner has no means of knowing whose dogs were responsible he should proceed as follows:

First, call two witnesses who are freeholders, to examine the sheep injured or killed, and estimate the damages. He should next get a blank for his claim at the auditor's office and fill it out and present to the township trustees of the township where the damages were done. At any regular meeting of the trustees they may examine witnesses under oath and recommend to the county commissioners the payment of such damages as they think are proper.

The commissioners may at their regular meetings consider and pass upon and allow such amounts as they deem proper, but such allowances shall not be paid until the June meeting, when, if there be sufficient amount in the dog fund, such allowance shall be paid in full, but if not,
such a proportionate amount of each bill will be paid, as will just consume the fund on hand at that time. Sheep claims can be paid only after the June meeting.

After a claim is passed upon by the township trustees, the claimant must file same with the county auditor. The regular meetings of the Commissioners are held in March, June, September and December. All other meetings are special sessions.

the charge that appeared against them.

A SINGULAR CASE.

John A. Johnson, editor of a country weekly paper at St. Peter, Minn., who was elected as governor of the state on the Democratic ticket, holds an honor that comes to few men in the newspaper profession. His election was a surprise even to those who nominated him and particularly so when Roosevelt carried the state by 125,000. He was the only Democrat on the ticket that was elected and he will serve with a Republican lieutenant governor. He had previously served in the state senate to the credit of the state. The story of Mr. Johnson's life was first published in the Minneapolis Journal, an influential Republican paper, and was taken up by the independent Republican press over the state, creating a landslide in his favor.

$2.00 Per Year.

Editor.
FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 26, 1904.

The United States is very generous with its navy yard employees engaged in building war ships. It pays them per diem wages for fifteen days' leave of absence and for the seven public holidays of the year. The chief constructor of the Navy, Rear Admiral Capps, says the United States cannot build its own battle ships as cheaply as they can be constructed in private yards.

The Republicans of Missouri are rejoicing over the prospect of electing a Senator from that state. It is about thirty years since Senator Cookrell took his seat in the Senate, and it looks now as if his time had come to gracefully retire, and rest upon his laurels. Only one other Senator has served longer—Allison of Iowa.

"Two years from now" say the Republicans of North Carolina, "we will take our state out of the 'solid South' column." At the last election they reduced the Democratic majority some 35,000. If this operation is repeated the Old North State will again come into the Union.

Senator Proctor, of Vermont, as all who know him will agree, is a very kind, benevolent and grandfatherly sort of man. He thinks well of old school teachers who have been poorly paid and had the misfortune to outlive their usefulness. To make them comfortable the rest of their days he has given them his house in Rutland, Vt., and with it a purse of $10,000. The Senator is very wealthy and can well afford to be generous.

Our 75 cent shoe worth 99c, our 95 cent shoe worth $1.24, our $1.50 shoe worth $1.99 and $2.50 worth $2.99, are worth seeing. Do not be deceived by Japs who drop in here for only a few months. Our goods are all marked in plain figures, size and price.

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is Pleasant to Take.
The finest quality of granulated loaf sugar is used in the manufacture of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, and the roots used in its preparation give it a flavor similar to maple syrup, making it quite pleasant to take. Mr. W. L. Roderick, of Poolesville, Md., in speaking of this remedy, says: "I have used Chamberlain's Cough Remedy with my children for several years and can truthfully say it is the best preparation of the kind I know of. The children like to take it and it has no injurious after effect. For sale by Isaac Wisterman."

That a man does not hear his own voice as all the rest of the world hears it is shown by an interesting experiment described by Dr. L. Laury in La Nature of Paris. Says the writer: "If a person records on a phonograph a few sentences pronounced by himself, together with others by his friends and causes the machine to reproduce these after a brief period, it generally happens that he easily recognizes his friends' voices, but not his own. On the other hand, the friends recognize his voice perfectly. This singular fact proves that every one hears his own voice differently from others."

CONSUMPTION'S WARNING

Yards facts soon become evident in outside symptoms.—Dr. G. G. O'Brien.

The aid of scientific inventions is not needed to determine whether your lungs are affected. The first symptoms can be readily noted by anyone of average intelligence.
There is no disease known that gives so many plain warnings of its approach as consumption, and so serious disease that can be so quickly reached and checked, if the medicine used is Dr. Boettcher's German Syrup, which is made to cure consumption.
It is in the early stages that German Syrup should be taken, when warnings are given in the cough that won't quit, the congestion of the bronchial tubes and the gradual weakening of the lungs, accompanied by frequent expectoration.
But no matter how deep-seated your cough, even if dread consumption has already attacked your lungs, German Syrup will surely effect a cure—as it has done before in thousands of apparently hopeless cases of lung trouble.
New trial bottles, 25c. Regular size, 75c. At all druggists.

New Way of Using Chamberlain's Cough Remedy.

Mr. Arthur Chapman writing from Durban, Natal, South Africa, says: "As a proof that Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is a cure suitable for old and young, I pen you the following: A neighbor of mine had a child just over two months old. It had a very bad cough and the parents did not know what to give it. I suggested that if they would get a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and put some upon the dummy teat the baby was sucking it would no doubt cure the child. This they did and brought about a quick relief and cured the baby. This remedy is for sale by Isaac Wisterman."

No Counting on Sundays.

The Bethel Primitive Methodist chapel in Burnley, England, recently held its anniversary. On that occasion a souvenir handbook, which contained copies of all records, was issued. A minute passed in 1834 reads: "That we do not allow young men and women of our society to court with each other on Sunday. Neither do we allow our single men and women to walk arm in arm in the streets together at any time, nor do we allow them to stand in the streets together chatting." Another resolution forbade girl choiristers wearing bows in their bonnets.

Only Make a Bad Matter Worse.

Perhaps you have never thought of it but the fact must be apparent to every one that constipation is caused by a lack of water in the system, and the use of drastic cathartics like the old fashioned pills only makes a bad matter worse. Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets are much more mild and gentle in their effects, and when the proper dose is taken, their action is so natural that one can hardly realize it is the effect of a medicine. Try a 25 cent bottle of them. For sale by all druggists.

England's Marriage Rate.

The marriage rate is higher in England than elsewhere, being 15 per thousand. In most other countries it varies from 7 to 10 per thousand.
The highest birth rate, according to a volume of statistics, referring chiefly to foreign countries, issued by the board of trade, is in Roumania—39 per thousand. That country also has the highest death rate—27.7 per thousand.
The lowest marriage rate is in Sweden, where it is 9.3 per thousand.—London Mail.

Nellie—You seemed much interested tonight in the conversation of Mr. Tomlinson.

Edith—Yes. His conversation was about sensible matters, such as few of the young men of the day discuss.
Nellie—What was it?
Edith—The superior advantages of married life as compared with bachelorhood.—London Telegraph.

Disastrous Wrecks.

Carelessness is responsible for many a railroad wreck and the same causes are making human wrecks of sufferers from Throat and Lung troubles. But since the advent of Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds, even the worst cases can be cured and hopeless resignation is no longer necessary. Mrs. Lois Cragg of Dorchester, Mass., is one of many whose life was saved by Dr. King's New Discovery. This great remedy is guaranteed for Throat and Lung diseases by all druggists. Price 50c, and $1.00 Trial bottles free.

Economy.

Many years ago when stoves were first beginning to take the place of open grates the daughter of a rich but rather close and eccentric old Philadelphia Quaker urged him to purchase a stove in order to keep up with the times. But the old man was obdurate in adhering to the grate.
"Why, father," argued his daughter, "a stove will save half of the fuel."
"Very well," then replied the wily old Quaker. "We had better buy two stoves and save it all."

The Coming sorrow.

The London Teller tells of a lady who, on the way back from her husband's funeral, called with a few sympathetic friends at a house of refreshment. Grief was fixed upon as a beverage suitable to the occasion.
"Any water with yours, Em?" inquired one of the ladies of the widow as she held out the jug. "Water?" shrieked the bereaved one. "Water! For Imme! Ain't I got trouble enough as it is?"

NEW TIME CARD.

The following is the schedule for the departure of trains: For East 7:42 a. m. flag stop; 4:47 p. m. For West 8:18 a. m. flag stop; 5:24 p. m.

"BALLED" PARTRIDGES.

The Result of Hatching on Clay Soil in Wet Weather.

In certain districts where the soil is exactly right, or, rather, exactly wrong, the partridges so carefully preserved in England are likely to be attacked by a peculiar misfortune known as "balling." The word means simply that a partridge hatched out on a clay soil in wet weather may find the mud adhering to its feet as it struggles along after the mother bird.

This is a small beginning, but the chances are that the earth accumulates. Sometimes indeed the soil attached to the foot of a little partridge will increase from a mere speck to a weight of several ounces. A writer in Badminton's Magazine says that the heaviest ball he ever knew weighed four ounces, and the bird which carried it was only half its proper size, although the rest of the covey were full grown. The little creature could only move along in a kind of flying scramble, dragging the ball on the ground.

The clay was baked as hard as a brick so that it was no easy matter to remove it. Finally it was soaked off, and then it became apparent that the bird, without its accustomed ballast, did not know how to fly. With every effort it tumbled head over heels and learned the natural mode only after long trying.

The fate of a "balled" partridge which is not rescued by some kindly hand is a cruel one. Day by day the burden grows heavier, and the more the chick scrambles after its companions the larger its burden becomes. Finally it is no longer possible to move at all, and then the little thing can but give up and die. Naturalists say that this balling of birds is one of nature's provisions for scattering seeds. It is easy to demonstrate this, and the "answer" comes true. One experimenter scattered the earth from a three ounce ball over the top of a pan of ordinary dirt, which had been baked to destroy the seeds in it. Ten plants sprang up in due time and developed into seven varieties.

A Sermon on Kissing.

It must require no small amount of courage on the part of a Church of England clergyman to preach a sermon on "kissing." The deed was recently done in an Anglican church in the most fashionable suburb of Melbourne. Naturally a good many giggling girls were in evidence among the congregation. They doubtless yielded their assent to the preacher's preliminary proposition that "a kiss is one of the most pleasant of earthly things" and that "a kiss is not perfect unless it is expected and reciprocated." The bulk of the sermon was devoted to Scriptural forms of the practice—the kiss of peace, the kiss of reconciliation, the kiss of consecration, etc.

What the Baby Said.

A New York doctor asked another medical man at a recent meeting of a number of the fraternity if he had ever heard of a three-months-old baby talking. "Oh," said the other, "of course it is very unusual, but I was called once to attend a sick infant of that age. The case was desperate and past all hope of relief. I was sitting watching for its last gasp when the mother said, 'Doctor, is there nothing that can be done to save my baby?' And I replied: 'Nothing. Absolutely nothing.' Just then the baby opened its eyes and said nothing, absolutely nothing, and died."

Trouble in Store.

The two young men reached the door at the same time.
"Is Miss Walsingham in?" they asked simultaneously.
The maid looked at them and shook her head disconsolately.
"She's in to wait for you out to the other," she said at last. "But the two of you coming together has got me so tangled I'm bothered if I know which is which. But come in, both of you, and sit down, and I'll see her to come down and pick you out."

His Advantage.

Little Johnny was playing with little Mary next door. "Johnny," said the little girl, "your mother's called you twice. Aren't you going in?"
"Oh, no," said Johnny.
"But won't she whip you?"
"No, not today. You see, she's got company, and when I go in she'll just say, 'The poor little man has been so dead since he had the measles.'"

A Hit at the Duchess.

Dr. Garth, a witty physician of the court of Queen Anne, had prescribed a nauseous dose for the great warrior, Duke of Marlborough. When the duke objected to following the directions the sharp tongued Duchess Sarah broke in by saying, "I'll be hanged if it does not cure you." "There, my lord," interposed Dr. Garth, "you had better swallow it. You will gain either way."

The Best Liniment.

"Chamberlain's Pain Balm" is considered the best liniment on the market," wrote Post & Biles, of Georgia Vt. No other liniment will heal a cut or burn so promptly. No other affords such quick relief from rheumatic pains. No other is so valuable for deep-seated pains like lame back and pains in the chest. Give this liniment a trial and you will never wish to be without it. Sold by Isaac Wisterman.

TRADE MARK DESIGNS & C.

A system of securing a sketch and description of any invention is probably the most important step in the process of securing a patent. The inventor should first secure a sketch of his invention, and then a description of it. The sketch should be made by a professional draughtsman, and the description should be made by a professional writer. The inventor should then apply to a patent attorney, who will prepare the patent application for him. The patent attorney will also advise the inventor of the best way to secure a patent, and will also advise him of the best way to protect his invention.

LEGAL NOTICE.

D. M. Collins and L. B. Collins, who reside in Willard County, State of Texas, will take notice: That George D. Haines, on the 5th day of November, 1904, filed his petition in the Court of Common Pleas, in and for Greene County, Ohio, and that the above named Haines, together with M. W. Collins, of said County of Greene, were indebted to the said George D. Haines upon a promissory note for $140.00 together with interest on the same.

That L. B. Collins was seized in fee simple of the following described real estate situated in the County of Greene, State of Ohio and in the Township of Cedarville, and bounded and described as follows:

Being part of survey No. 2903 on the waters of Masses Creek, beginning in the center of the Columbus and Xenia turnpike and running thence with the east line of the lands of Effie Barber N. 38deg. W. 92.2 poles to a stake. Thence S. 88deg. E. 6.20 poles. Thence with the west line of Henry Barber S. 30deg. E. 79.78 poles to the South bank of Masses Creek. Thence down the same S. 80deg. W. 30 poles. Thence S. 88deg. E. 99.2 poles to the center of the Columbus and Xenia turnpike. Thence S. 76-1-2 deg. W. 48.8 poles to the beginning, containing 37.04 acres, more or less.

That the Exchange Bank of Cedarville and R. S. Anderson have same interest or claim in said real estate.

The prayer of said petition is for judgment against said defendants for the sum of $140.00 with interest from the 6th day of August, 1904, and for an order of Attachment issued attaching the above described real estate and that the Exchange Bank of Cedarville and R. S. Anderson be required to set up this claim against said real estate.

The parties first above mentioned will take notice that they have been made parties defendant to said petition and that they are required to answer the same on or before the 19th day of December, 1904, by Frank H. Dean, Attorney.

Miss Rena and Frank Grindel, accompanied by Mr. Chas. Smith, of Springfield, spent Thanksgiving with J. C. Grindel and family.
